MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant to DD/A

FROM: Office of the General Counsel

SUBJECT: Draft Notice __-52 - Subject: Advances to Employees for Personal Expenditures

1. You have requested our comments with regard to the subject draft notice. Rather than indulging in a piecemeal discussion of the draft as submitted, we have undertaken a redraft, a copy of which is hereto attached. It is our opinion that the form of redraft may clarify certain doubtful legal points in the submitted version. Our comments respecting reasons for changes follow.

2. As a general comment may we point out that the subject of the notice is concerned with advances and the absolute prohibition against use of Agency funds as advances to meet personal obligations. We would prefer to see the contents of paragraphs 1-3 inclusive of the submitted draft condensed into one paragraph with an unequivocal statement of the legal prohibition. It is our opinion that the notice should contain no suggestion of possible deviation from this rule for personal reasons. See paragraph 1 of the revised draft.

25X1A 3. Paragraph 4 of the submitted draft is essentially in contradiction of paragraphs 1-3 and to some extent in conflict with opinions which this office has rendered from time to time with respect to the authority of the DD/A under [REDACTED]. We do not believe the exercise of this auth-25X1A ority should turn upon the degree of hardship. If the obligation is personal, no matter how great, it should not influence a decision to make Agency funds available to defer it. The intent of [REDACTED] as we have inter-25X1A preted it, is to permit reimbursement of certain expenses imposed upon individuals because of the peculiar functions of CIA as, for instance, expenses related to preservation of cover. The effect of permitting such reimbursement is to say that these expenses are essentially obligations of the Government because of the unusual requirements we have made upon the individual. There should be a direct causal relationship between the expense and the unique functions of CIA. We believe firmly that the use of [REDACTED] to meet personal expenses normally encountered in the day to day administration of every Government agency, should be scrupulously avoided.

4. The contents of paragraphs 5 and 6 of the submitted draft are already spelled out in [REDACTED]. We believe the notice should not do more than to call attention to the fact that advances are to be authorized only in strict accordance with the provisions of that regulation.

5. We have no comments with respect to paragraph 7 of the submitted draft.
